

Thursday 14 November
15.30, ISS Aula A,
Kortenaerkade 12, Den
Haag

Launch:
The Palgrave Handbook
of Development Economics

15.30 Welcome, Introduction:
Arjun Bedi, Chair and Deputy Rector
Research ISS

15.35 Overview of the Handbook :
Machiko Nissanke, Editor and SOAS
16.05 Questions from public

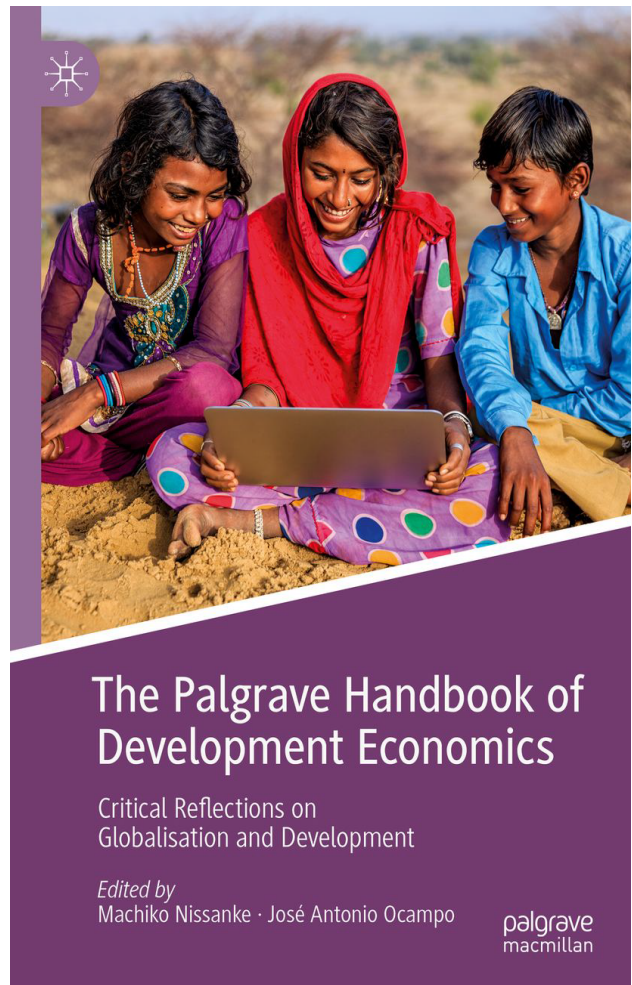

Three Contributors of the Handbook:

16.15 *Development Economics and Public
Economics: Emerging Analytical Interface and Practical Policy Implications:*
Valpy FitzGerald, Oxford Univeristy
and former ISS

16.30 *Labour Institutions and Development
Under Globalization:* Servaas Storm, Delft
University and Board Member ISS Journal
Development and Change

16.45 Income Inequality in Developing Countries, Past and Present: Rolph van der Hoeven ISS

17.00 Comments: Mansoob Murshed, ISS
17.15 General Discussion
17.30 Closure, followed by drinks in the Butterfly Bar

Critical Reflections on Globalisation and Development:

- First handbook to take a pluralistic approach to development economics.
- Applies deep and strategically crucial, conceptual and policy links between development paths and the multidimensional questions of sustainability.
- Appraises a variety of methodological approaches and analytical tools.