

Introduction to the HSC 2025 One-Day Conference | Aula B

09:00 - 10:00	Coffee bike (outside ISS) & registration (ground floor)
10:00 - 10:10	Welcome by Thea Hilhorst (HSC Director)
10:10 - 10:55	Keynote Tammam Aloudat, CEO of The New Humanitarian

HSC 2025 One-Day Conference: Adapting and Reworking in New Times and Contexts

 Choose one session/colour/room per time slot: either Aula B, Aula A, Room 1.31, room 2.01 or Room 3.01. Each session has 3 presentations and time for a Q&A.

Slot	Time	Location
		Aula B, ground floor	Aula A, ground floor	Room 2.01, 2 nd floor	Room 3.01, 3 rd floor
1	11:00-11:15	Sahara Sedhain 'Triggering Anticipatory Action before Disaster: What is working and what is evolving?'	Manal Zia 'Who Builds, Who Belongs: Politics of Reconstruction in Gaza'	Anne Brinkman 'Adapting to Localisation in Practice – Guidance from Yemen, Iraq and Libya'	Elena Guido 'Sanctions and Humanitarian Impact: the Case Study of the DPRK'
	11:15-11:30	Taiwo Ogunwumi 'Climate-Induced Flood Risks and Displacement: A Rapid Flood Hazard Assessment of IDP Camps in Dikwa, Borno State, Nigeria'	Santiago del Hierro 'Humanitarian situations and clueless architects: A case study in Ecuador's post-earthquake response'	Renee van Hoof 'Unlearning to Unlock Impact — Moving from policy to proximity, and from oversight to solidarity: presenting an alternative humanitarian model in Sudan'	Mariam Salameh-Puvogel 'Examining the conditionalities bound up with the continuation of EU aid to the Palestinian Authority (PA) amid the ongoing genocide in Gaza'
	11:30-11:45	Garbhit Naik 'Designing a Serious Collaborative Learning Game for Flood-Resistant Housing Reconstruction in Nepal'	Isaac Besarra 'Enhancing Humanitarian Response through Understanding Self-Recovery: A Scoping Review of Barriers and Livelihood Outcomes in Post-Disaster Housing Reconstruction'	Kasia Antoszyk 'Designing With, Not For: Participatory Design in Humanitarian Response'	Anthony Neal & Diletta Salviati 'Barriers to Local Participation in NGO Security Coordination'

Lunch break (12:00 – 13:00) | Canteen, 1st floor

		Aula B, ground floor	Aula A, ground floor	Room 2.01, 2 nd floor	Room 3.01, 3 rd floor
2	13:15-13:30	Gabriela Villacis & Delu Lusambya 'Situating the role of the state as a humanitarian actor in four different humanitarian contexts: Bangladesh, Colombia, DRC, and Ethiopia (1)'	Katerina Ahrens 'From Dependency to Agency: A Food-for-Thought Reflection on Fundraising and Power in Humanitarian Response'	Amrita Slach 'Neglected reality of displacement-resettlement in legacies of extractive industries: Case of Germany and India'	Chimwemwe Salie Hara 'Social Protection and Social Cash Transfers in Humanitarian Governance in Africa: The Case of Malawi from 2015 to 2024'
	13:30-13:45	Alex Hordofa & Hyeonggeun Ji 'Situating the role of the state as a humanitarian actor in four different humanitarian contexts: Bangladesh, Colombia, DRC, and Ethiopia (2)'	Marije Balt 'The Politics of Migration: European Diplomats in Turkey'	Farouzan Hosseini Moghaddam 'Between Borders and Bias: Experiences from Humanitarian Work with Afghan Refugees and Immigrants in the Iranian Context'	Juel Helge Rye 'Beyond Literature: A Novel Framework for Categorizing Humanitarian Contexts through Complexity, risk and pace of change'
	13:45-14:00	Andrew Russo 'Disaster, Manic Kleptocracy, and Critical Theory: Future Possibilities in Uncertain Times'	Noor Lekkerkerker 'Adaptive digital engagement in contested humanitarian spaces'	Sydney Cohee & Eleni Diker 'Mobility Justice: A framework and vision for reimagining the foreign aid regime'	Alycke de Haan-Slomp 'Sharing experiences and lessons learned from a risk sharing pilot in humanitarian programming'
3	14:15-14:30	Daniela Raad Sierra 'Learning from Child- and Youth-Led Climate Justice Mobilization: Reflections for Humanitarian Engagement'	John Sunday Ojo 'Warfare by Welfare: Terrorist-Driven Humanitarianism, Insurgent Soft-Power, and the Shadow Aid Economies of ISWAP in the Lake Chad Basin'	Sonja Fransen 'The determinants of climate risks for refugees: A global analysis'	Tika Meijer 'Integrating Mental Health and Psychosocial Support and Peacebuilding: the humanitarian, development and peace nexus in practice'
	14:30-14:45	Abriel Schieffeler 'Barriers and pathways to equitable risk sharing in Ukraine'	Stephanie Rinaldi 'Normative States: Successes, Failures, and Lessons for Protection of Healthcare'	Claudia Gonzalez Marrero 'Humanitarian Aid in Cuba: A Critique of Assistentialist Simulation as an Autocratic Reinforcement'	Nazanin Zadeh-Cummings 'Ready for anything?: How humanitarians prepare for crisis'
	14:45-15:00	Tanja Hendriks 'Taking a Risk on Disasters: speculative humanitarianism amidst a changing climate in Malawi'	Jameson Lingl 'Zero-Sum Thinking and Perceived Injustice: Implications for Humanitarian Practice in Conflict Contexts'	Awsan Bahattab 'Yemen's Humanitarian System: Insights from Professionals and Displaced People on Governance Challenges, Local Realities, and Proposed Changes'	Rakib Khossein & Khan Mehedi Hasan 'Information Asymmetry and Its Impact on Humanitarian Governance and Accountability in the Rohingya Refugee Crisis in Bangladesh'

Closing

15:30- 16:45	Closing Panel	Aula B, ground floor
	Corinne Lamain (moderator)	KUNO
	Joram Tarusarira	University of Groningen
	Reintje van Haeringen	CARE Netherlands
	Polly Pallister-Wilkins	University of Amsterdam
	Tammam Aloudat	The New Humanitarian
16:45 - onwards	Networking	ISS Butterfly Bar, 1 st floor

Thank you for attending!

Stay connected with us

Website: humanitarianstudiescentre.nl
LinkedIn: The Hague Humanitarian Studies Centre
Email: humanitarianstudiescentre@iss.nl

