

Author guidelines

1. Articles should be maximum 1500.
2. Article can be written in semi-technical language but must be understandable to a broader audience.
3. No footnotes or references unless absolutely necessary (due to lack of space in the hard copy journal).
4. Keep your bibliography to an absolute minimum (it is part of the 1500 maximum word count)
5. Send some photograph or other graphic with your article to help illustrate the points you are making. Photographs and other pictures must be 300 dpi minimum and 210 mm in size.
6. Include a short description of your current position and how you can be reached. Please include a passport photograph that can be used for the contents page.

The first draft will be read by the Editorial Board and sent back to the author with any comments for revision. A final draft will then be sent by the author for review. Please keep in mind that the Editorial Board retains the right to shorten or leave out the article to ensure that quality and readership expectations are met in each DevISSues edition.
